The annual sale of Christmas seals to carry on the fight against tuberculosis in this city is now on and is to continue until January 1st. The school children have received quantities of seals and they are proving to be the best selling agents in town. The sale of these seals is most important as it enables the visitor to this work and conduct a systematic campaign against tuberculosis during the entire year.

This campaign, in connection with the free chest clinics held twice each month makes it possible for the Willimantic Branch of the State Tuberculosis Commission to discover cases in their early stages and prevent much harm.

Plans are progressing rapidly for the opening of all the alumni classes of Windham High school from 1870 to 1922 which will be held in the state armory on Pleasant street Wednesday evening, December 27. Judging from the present figures of alumni who are expected to attend it is evident that the affair will be a big success.

Efforts are being made to reach former principals and teachers of the various classes and to invite them to be present. George W. Hickey and several others promise something new in the entertainment line. Elmer E. Ellsworth, principal of the Model school and Raymond A. Parker, an first assistant, are in charge of the decoration committee and Louis J. Flynn is chairman of the refreshment committee. Chairman Case is in charge of the reception committee and the general committee are acting as assistants.

At a meeting of the Catholic Welfare Council, plans for the Christmas tree at the county house were completed and a

Be sure to get real Resinol

If you want to get rid of eczema, pimples, or other distressing skin eruptions, you will accept no "substitute" for Resinol. Preparations similar in name or appearance are not "just the same as Resinol." Although a few unscrupulous dealers may offer them as or for Resinol, they are often crudely made, of little healing power, and some may even be dangerous to use. Buy in the original blue package.

Resinol is never sold in bulk.

STOP CATARRH OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD
Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more headache, dizziness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what suffers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

JEWETT CITY
Mt. Vernon lodge No. 75, F. and A. M., Norman Parkhurst, master, enjoyed one of the finest third degree celebrations in its history Tuesday evening.

A class of five received the Master Mason degree, the work being done by the crack degree team. The floor work was faultless, everything being being from start to finish performed in full regalia. There were delegations present from Plainfield and Mootup and from Ionia lodge of Greene, R. I.

In all there were 125, including 35 visitors in the lodge room during the evening. An old fashioned oyster supper was served with home made doughnuts, cheese and coffee and selected R. I. greenings, the choicest from Griswold's orchards.

Carpenters are at work at the town building making a few improvements and repairs which include the construction of rooms especially designed for the use of Officer McDermott as police headquarters.

Mrs. William Johnstone has sold her house on South street to John Welsh, town clerk of Griswold.

Mrs. Mary Frye, wife of Charles Frye, after an illness of but five weeks, died Tuesday evening at 12:15 p. m. at East Main street. Mrs. Frye leaves a little baby boy, only five weeks old.

Mrs. Frye was the daughter of William and Mary McNamara of New York city. She was born May 15, 1884. Charles Frye and Mary Moore were married by Rev. Father Treanor in Norwich April 18, 1919.

She is survived by her husband, her parents, and little son, three sisters in Norwich, Mrs. Alfred E. LeMoine, Mrs. Joseph L. Flannery, Mrs. E. B. Moore, and a brother, Charles S. Moore of New London.

Mrs. Frye enjoyed the friendship of the many with whom she was acquainted in Jewett City. Home attractions and interests brought to her all the pleasures and comforts which she found necessary.

Her husband and family and friends have lost a conscientious, true woman, faithful in all the capacities that life called upon her to fill.

Prohibition Agent Robert Church, was in town Wednesday, and called upon Officer John McDermott, proposing to take over the wine and beer locked in a cell at the South street police station.

The seizure is still here and undisturbed by Mr. Church. Officer McDermott refused to pass it into his custody without a written order from Judge Brown of the Griswold court.

Over thirty names have been received to date for the Rifle club. As only the names of ten persons are needed it seems that at least Jewett City will have a club of which it ought to be proud. There is a wealth of material to draw from and there is numbered among those that have handed in their names several good rifle and revolver shot. However these crack shots will have to look sharp as John Kauffman of Voluntown, who for years was a member of the famous New York City Rifle club has offered his services as coach to anyone who wants to learn the finer art of the game.

Mr. Kauffman is today one of the best rifle shots in the National Rifle Association and holds world's records that for years the leading expert riflemen have tried to equal. Evidence of his ability as a coach is found in the fact that several young men in and around Voluntown who have been under his tutelage during the past year are now putting up scores that are seldom beaten. With such a coach the Jewett City Rifle club will soon be competing with the leading rifle clubs throughout the United States. It is expected that a meeting for the organization of the club will be held in the town hall either Monday or Tuesday night of next week.

The suit club which struck Jewett City and with Danahall, Putnam and Williams, the local investors are evidently stuck for the money they paid in First off suits were coming right along, the collections being made by an exceptionally affable party. Recently the members have been advised to forward their dues to an address in New Haven.

Wednesday it was learned that all was not moving smoothly. The local men who have through the United States. It is probable that an officer will be sent to New Haven to locate the trouble. There is little criticism here of the club members for the reason that for some years, bona-fide suit clubs have been conducted in Jewett City in which the operations were satisfactory.

At a regular communication of Ballance lodge No. 29, I. O. O. F., held Monday evening the initiatory degree was conferred on a class of 4.

The following officers were chosen for the ensuing term:

Noble Grand, Frank Mell; vice grand, William J. Robertson, Jr.; recording secretary, David A. Bothwell; financial secretary, George A. Haskell; treasurer, William McCluggage; trustees for three years, P. G. John W. Potts.

There will be the first degree next Monday. As there are regular meetings due on Christmas and New Year's, they will be omitted, with specials to be announced by order of the noble grand.

PLAINFIELD

On Monday evening there was presented in the Lily theatre the annual senior play of Plainfield High school, "The New Co-ed," coached by John P. DeWolfe of Webster, Mass., dealt with the arrival of a new student from the country at the co-educational college, her reception, her trials, and their happy conclusion. The interest of the audience was held to the very end, and many good laughs were provided. Walter Greiner as PUNCH DOODLE proved the hit of the performance, but every one of the characters was well portrayed and each deserved much credit.

Mrs. Henry Lester and Mrs. Charles Lester of Providence are guests at the Lawton Inn this week.

Mrs. Arthur D. Barwick arrived at the home of James P. Lathrop on Tuesday with her little son, Raymond, coming from Cleveland.

Mrs. Florence M. Scott and her friend, Miss Katherine Bullard, students at Wheaton College, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. West over the week end. Tuesday was the 55th birthday of Richard.

BALLOUVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. George Knight and son of Worcester, Mass., were week end guests of local relatives.

Miss Imogene Cook has returned from a visit in Boston.

Arthur Lavenash and son of Putnam spent Sunday with the former's brother, Pierre Lavenash.

Mrs. Elmer Keene was the leader of the Balloville Epworth league Sunday evening. Special music was a feature of the meeting.

On Friday evening of last week the Balloville Epworth league entertained the Quinebaug Circuit league in the Attawapung M. E. church. During the devotional program of the evening a helpful address was given by the district superintendent, Rev. William H. Bath of Norwich. The business meeting was followed by a social hour, during which refreshments were served. The auditorium of the church was prettily decorated with holly and holly leaves, while the vestry was trimmed with red and white.

Despite the stormy evening, about 125 were present. Guests from Jewett City, Sterling, Mootup, Danielson and Putnam.

STERLING

The Community Girls' club held their monthly social Monday evening, to which they invited many of their friends. The following program was successfully rendered: Piano solo, L. H. Hays, Edith; Doris Bishop; song-sketch, I Had a Little Wife; Lena McShane and Clara Tyler; vocal solo, The Love a Heart Remember; Mrs. Frank Chamberlain; reading, Wadsworth Housecleaning; Mary Noble; vocal solo, The Dawning of Love; Ethel Bryant; piano solo, A Maiden's Prayer; Edith; Piano solo, L.
